WESTLAKE, OH, August 20th, 2013- Alego Health's Jonathan Levoy, VP of Business Development & Technology, announced today that Alego Health was named to Inc. Magazine's Top 500|5000 fastest growing private companies in America. "We are extremely honored to be part of this amazing group of companies. To see your company name next to such well-known companies is such a great validation for our team and the hard work we have put in to get here," said Mr. Levoy.

The 32-year-old Inc. Magazine award named 5,000 private companies to its 2013 list today, with the top 500 companies named to the prestigious Inc. 500 list. Alego Health was ranked #431 on the 2013 list. This award comes on the heel of being named as one of the 2012 Top 100 Northeast Ohio fastest-growing companies by Case Western Reserve University Weatherhead School of Management & Council of Smaller Enterprises via the Weatherhead 100 Award. "We have really had a mind-blowing few years with all of these awards and recognition. But our focus is even sharper now that the expectation level has risen for our organization," stated Levoy. "Our commitment to our clients and our employees is what drives our success. We can never lose sight of what got us here, and what it will take to move our company up these lists."

Mr. Levoy explained that Alego Health is preparing for future growth in the next few years through initiatives that will expand Alego's reach, like its space in the HIMSS Innovation Center at the Cleveland Global Center for Health Innovation, partnerships with national Electronic Medical Record software vendors, and the continual expansion of the Alego Health client base. "Our goal has always been to build a strong local and regional foundation, then to expand our services throughout the US. We have seen some great traction nationally and are moving into new markets every month. We are very proud of our track record, services, and client satisfaction results. This has undoubtedly led to the awards that we have received."
